Itinerary:

Hot Tenting Base Camp

On this adventure I wanted to try hot tenting again. I have made a homemade wood stove and a 8' x 10' tent tarp shelter. The plan is to sled in around 2 km along trails and frozen ponds and setup a base camp. Once set-up go on a 3 hour snowshoe daypack hike exploring the Queen Elizabeth 2 park around Devils/Sheldon Lake. Returning to camp for supper and sleeping in the hot tent for the night. I'm thinking we can sleep 4-6 in the tent shelter. On Sunday morning crank up the stove again for a good breakfast. Then head out in a different direction for a ~6 km (2.5 hour) day snowshoe hike. Back to camp for a snack and pack up camp and sled back to the trail. You can check out other trip photos from previous outings on my Facebook page.

The challenge on this adventure will be to see what's hot tenting all about.

Cooking over the wood stove or camp fire. Dress in layers. Wear boots with removable liners. This trip is open to beginners to advance experienced winter campers with overnight winter camping experience. You need to be able to be comfortable bushwhacking on this adventure. You need to be able to bushwhack snowshoe at 2 km/hr. The planned route 4-5 km loop full pack/sled and 4-6 km day pack. You will need to be comfortable crossing frozen ponds and lakes.

Itinerary:

Planning will be coordinated via emails and phone calls. Winter camping guides, maps, etc will be forwarded before the outing to help you prepare. A planning spreadsheet will be sent out and needs to be filled in and returned to the coordinator in a timely manner to solidify your spot on the trip. In addition, if you are new to the coordinator a series of questions will be asked to determine your experience and fitness level. This will allow the coordinator to create balanced shelter teams and keep everyone safe and happy.

Everyone will need to have safety ice pikes, a whistle, and a first aid kit. You can pick this gear up at a Canadian Tire, Sail or hunting supply stores.

On Sunday afternoon after the outing we will have an early supper in Norland where we can sort out the carpool funds and have a few laughs.
